PREFATORY NOTE.

The following pages contain a translation of a Bill embodying a new Customs Tariff for Chile which is the outcome of the deliberations of a Commission consisting of certain members of the Chilean Chamber of Deputies appointed in 1909 to elaborate a scheme for the reform of the existing Customs Tariff Law of the 23rd December, 1897. The proposed new Tariff, as framed by the Commission (with a few modifications which were introduced subsequently), has recently been approved by the Chamber, which, in passing the measure, also adopted a proposal that the new rates of duty to be established by the Tariff shall be subject to a surtax of 10 per cent. The proposed rates of duty shewn in this Return do not include this surtax. There is some doubt whether the Bill is likely to be passed by the Senate in its present form, though it may be approved by that body without the surtax of 10 per cent.; and, in any event, it is understood that some considerable time may elapse before the new Tariff Law takes definitive form and receives the sanction of both Houses of the Legislature.

The new Tariff has been framed on a directly specific basis: the existing Tariff duties, except in a few instances, are also in effect specific though in form they are ad valorem, being levied on the basis of a percentage on official valuations assigned to the various classes of merchandise in the "Valuation Tariff," which is a comprehensive list of goods classified under about 3,000 distinct headings. The existing rates of duty, shown in this Return (as far as possible) for purpose of comparison, have been computed from the percentage rates and official values established for the various articles, and they include the additional duties mentioned in the following paragraph.

The Tariff Law of 1897 (which is the basis of the Tariff now in force) fixed specific rates of duty in respect of a limited number of classes of goods only (spirits, wines, beer, sugar, coffee, tea, tobacco, and a few other articles), and provided that other articles—except duty-free goods—should pay duty at the rate of 5, 15, 25, 35, or 60 per cent. on the valuations fixed by the "Valuation Tariff." By a Law which came into operation on the 15th April, 1912, an additional duty of 5 per cent. ad valorem was imposed on goods subject to percentage rates of duty, making the rates 10, 20, 30, 40 or 65 per cent. respectively; a surcharge of 10 per cent. was imposed on the specific duties leviable under the Law of 1897, except on sugar and wheat flour; and a duty of 5 per cent. was imposed, with certain exceptions, on goods which were free of duty under the Law of 1897. This last-named charge was to be permanent; the other surcharges were imposed for a period originally intended to terminate on the 14th April, 1915, but afterwards extended for a further term of eighteen months.

The duties are expressed in pesos of eighteen pence. The kilogramme is equivalent to 2·2046 pounds avoirdupois.

Article 5.—The importation of the following is prohibited :—

1. Beverages and foodstuffs in a state of decomposition or which are declared injurious to health ; the beverage known as "absinthe" ; and products or substances intended for consumption which, even though not dangerous to health, being artificially prepared, or having been submitted to industrial processes, do not possess the nutritive value proper to the products or substances they represent and may deceive or defraud the consumer ;
2. Saccharine and the like, unless imported for medicinal purposes in accordance with regulations prescribed by the President of the Republic ;
3. Beverages or foodstuffs which contain saccharine or the like ;
4. Drugs and pharmaceutical preparations the formula of which is not printed in an intelligible manner on the wrapper or package in which they are immediately enclosed, unless the importer is prepared to pay an amount equal to five times the duty prescribed in the Tariff ;
5. Pictures, statues, images, books or other objects which, by their nature, tend to corrupt morals or which are prejudicial to public order ;
6. Powder (except blasting powder for mines and dynamite or the like), side arms or firearms (except sporting arms and ammunition therefor), and all kinds of military equipment, which may only be imported with the special permission of the Intendant of the respective Province, who is empowered to grant or refuse such permission, unless the Government should decide to the contrary ;
7. Wild animals, noxious reptiles or insects imported without special permission from the local Governor ;
8. Animals and plants, seeds, tubers, bulbs, bulbous roots, rootstocks and roots which are declared to be affected with infectious diseases.

Article 6.—The President of the Republic may prohibit the importation of beverages, foodstuffs, drugs, pharmaceutical preparations, and any substances or products which, in the opinion of the Superior Council of Hygiene, may be injurious to health.

Article 7.—The importation of plants, seeds, tubers, bulbs, bulbous roots, rootstocks and roots shall only be effected after the issue of a certificate attesting the freedom of the goods from disease, issued by the Office charged with the sanitary inspection of vegetable products.

* Article 69 of the Customs Ordinance is as follows :—

"Goods not included in the Tariff will be valued by the Appraisers according to the price "obtained at the last wholesale sales effected under Customs supervision. Failing this basis of "comparison the valuation will be accomplished by taking the current price which the same "article fetches on the spot minus the import duties ; but if this information, too, cannot be "obtained, then the Appraiser will use discretion in determining the value, having regard to the "quality of the article."

The President of the Republic shall prescribe regulations to govern the importation of cattle, and is empowered to close sea ports or land frontiers to the importation of animals which are suffering from contagious diseases, or which come from districts affected by epidemics.

Article 8.—Articles which are sought to be imported in violation of the prohibitive measures stipulated in Articles 5 and 6 will be confiscated, and furthermore in each instance a fine ranging from 100 to 1,000 pesos will be imposed, and the importer will be liable to pay compensation in respect of any mischief or damage caused. Goods, the importation of which is prohibited by sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 7 of Article 5 and by Article 6, shall be immediately destroyed, as shall also the plants, seeds, tubers, bulbs, bulbous roots, rootstocks and roots referred to in section 8 of the said Article 5.

Animals imported in contravention of section 8 of Article 5 shall be returned to their place of origin or subjected to appropriate sanitary treatment. Should it not be possible to adopt these measures, the diseased animals shall be slaughtered, at the expense of the proprietor or custodian, and no compensation shall be accorded.

Article 9.—In cases where the Tariff grants exemption of duty in respect of certain goods by reason of the use for which they are intended, this exemption will only be sanctioned when such articles, by their particular form and nature, are specially adapted for the use indicated.

Article 10.—Wherever the Tariff contains the phrases "other material" or "other materials" they will not be held to include either precious stones, pearls, fine metals or silk.

Article 11.—Manufactured articles composed of two or more materials, or articles in respect of which the Tariff stipulates that they may or may not have "pieces or parts of other material," shall pay duty at the rate applicable to the part which is subject to the highest rate of duty in cases where the part on which this highest rate is leviable exceeds 20 per cent. of the total weight of the goods, unless the Tariff prescribes other treatment.

Article 12.—All goods the proper classification of which is doubtful will pay the highest rate of duty applicable according to kind.

Article 13.—When goods or products are presented with labels which ascribe to them qualities superior to their real quality duty will be levied in accordance with the statement contained on such labels, even though the contents harmonise with the description given in the respective Customs entry forms.

Article 14.—The invoice value shall be declared in the Customs entry forms, in pesos of 18 pence, in respect of each class of goods, fractions under 50 centavos being ignored, and those exceeding 50 centavos being entered as 1 peso.

In the event of this declaration being false the person or firm by whom the Customs entry form is signed will be punished with a fine of from 10 to 300 pesos.

These fines will be imposed in the first instance by the Directors of Customs Houses and in the second by the Superintendent's Department, the procedure being the same as in the case of fines for contravening the Customs Ordinance or Regulations.

Article 15.—Article 1 of Law No. 2664 of the 16th July, 1912*, is replaced by the following :—

"All goods admitted to Customs warehouses shall pay a warehousing "charge of 3 per cent. on the amount of their import duty, from the handing "in of the general manifest and during the first four months of storage; 4½ "per cent. from the commencement of and during the second period of four "months, and 6 per cent. from the commencement of and during the third period "of four months.

"If at the termination of one year the goods have not been taken out they will "be immediately sold by auction in accordance with the Customs Ordinance and "Regulations."

Article 16.—Article 3 of the same Law No. 2664† is replaced by the following :—

"Goods subject to import duty and to immediate clearance shall pay 3 per cent.

* Article 1 of Law 2664 of the 16th July, 1912, reads as follows :—

"All goods admitted to Customs warehouses shall pay 1 per cent. on their value, for storage "charges.

"If they are not taken out within a period of three months an additional warehousing charge "of ¼ per cent. will be imposed at the commencement of each of the succeeding months. After "the goods have been stored six months this additional charge will be ½ per cent. monthly.

"If the goods have still not been taken away at the end of one year, they will at once be "disposed of by auction and any further proceedings will be taken as prescribed in the Customs "Laws and Regulations."

† Article 3 of Law No. 2,664 is as follows :—

"Goods subject to immediate clearance which are not withdrawn within 15 working days "after the date of the respective Customs examination shall be subject to a charge for warehousing. "If the goods have not been taken out at the expiration of a further 30 days, arrangements will "be made to sell them by auction in accordance with the general regulations."

" of the said duty as a warehousing charge in the event of their not being taken " away within 30 days subsequent to the handing in of the general manifest. Should " they be exempt from import duty, they will pay as warehousing charge " 10 centavos for every 100 kilogrammes gross weight.

" Should a further 15 days elapse without goods having been taken away, " steps will be taken to dispose of them by public auction.

" The fine imposed by Article 107 of the Customs Regulations* will apply to " duty-free goods, the charge indicated in the 1st paragraph of this Article for this " class of goods being taken as a basis."

Article 17.—When the case contemplated by Article 56 of the Customs Ordinance† occurs in regard to goods which contain names, marks or inscriptions which invest them with a proprietary character, such as commercial advertisements or signs, labels, receptacles or the like, their sale by public auction may not be carried out except at a price which may cover the amount of duty leviable. In the absence of any bidding the goods in question shall be held to be State property and steps will be taken to render them unfit for use.

Article 18.—For the purpose of applying the fines laid down in the Law and based on the value of the goods, the value in question will be assessed at a sum equal to four times the relative import duty.

Article 19.—Any protests anent the classification, valuation, weight, measurement or quantity of goods shall be referred to the Director of the Customs House concerned, who will decide the issue after hearing two experts (one to be appointed by the Customs authorities, and the other by the person or firm interested), and, at Valparaiso, the Chief of the Board of Appraisers ; and, at other places, the Appraiser who may have examined and classified the goods.

An appeal in respect of decisions arrived at by Directors of Customs Houses may be made to the Superintendent of Customs, and in any event they will be referred to the latter. The finding declared by the Superintendent of Customs shall be final and will be valid in all Customs Houses.

Protests may not be lodged after the working day following the date on which the records regarding the matter were entered in the respective customs entry form or if the goods or part thereof shall have been taken away from the precincts of the Customs House.‡

Article 20.—The President of the Republic is empowered to limit to certain Customs Houses the importation of those products or goods which he may deem expedient.

Article 21.—The duties established in this Tariff are expressed in pesos of eighteen pence.

Article 22.—The duties, or exemptions from duty, imposed or accorded by this Tariff shall apply to goods or products that have been brought in vessels which on arrival in Chile put into any port fifteen days after the date of the publication of this Law in the " Diario Oficial." The same period shall apply in respect of articles which may be imported by land.

* Article 107 of the Customs Regulations is as follows :—

" ' Immediate clearance ' goods for importation or for private warehouses shall pay double " warehousing charges when through error, neglect on the part of interested persons or firms, or " for other reasons, they are deposited in Customs warehouses, without prejudice in regard to " clearing them as soon as required by the proper store-keeper."

† Article 56 of the Customs Ordinance reads as follows :—

" If at the expiration of every three years a renewal for storage is not applied for, the goods " shall be put up to public auction, three days' notice being given in some newspaper, or, " failing this, notice by posters describing the nature of the goods that are to be put up to auction " with an indication of their marks and numbers, name of the consignee and that of the vessel by " which they were imported.

" The goods will be knocked down to the highest bidder, unless, in the opinion of the Chief " of Customs, the price offered is too low."

[The time mentioned in this Article was reduced to one year, without extension, by Laws Nos. 980 and 2,664.]

‡ This Article is proposed in place of the following Articles in the Customs Ordinance :—

" Article 70.—Protests in regard to valuations shall be lodged with the head of the Customs " House affected, who shall decide the issue, without further appeal, after hearing two experts, " (one to be appointed by the Customs authorities, and the other by the interested person or " firm) and, at Valparaiso, the Chief of the Appraisers ; and, at other places, the Appraiser who " shall have conducted the examination."

" Article 71.—No claim whatsoever shall be entertained unless lodged within 24 hours after " the goods have been examined or if the person or firm interested should already have taken " them away."
